

NOTICE OF CLAIM

PROVINCIAL COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

MAKING A CLAIM

Step 1

COMPLETE the NOTICE OF CLAIM.

Please print clearly and firmly as there are 5 copies and all must be legible. If you accessed this form from the Government of BC website, you may also complete it using a computer and then print all 5 copies. *NOTE: You can also complete the form online using the Filing Assistant <https://justice.gov.bc.ca/cso/>. For more help, there are guides called "What is Small Claims" and "Making a Claim."

Forms and guides can be found at the Government of BC website:

www.gov.bc.ca/smallclaims

Step 2

FILE the NOTICE OF CLAIM with the small claims registry. If you are making a claim against a company or a society, you must also file a copy of a company search showing the most recent address of the registered office or the society on file with the Registrar of Companies. The fee for filing is $100 for claims up to and including $3,000, or $156 for claims over $3,000. You must also file an Address for Service (Form 38) - there is no fee for filing of this document. The staff will check the forms and, when it is accepted for filing will apply the registry stamp, add on filing and service fees, and assign a file number. Staff will return the copies you need for your records and for serving on the defendant.

Step 3

SERVE each defendant named in the NOTICE OF CLAIM with a copy of the document, your filed Address for Service form, and blank copies of the REPLY and Address for Service forms. This is how the defendant is notified they are being sued, and what the case is about. For more help with service there is a guide called "Serving Documents".

IF the defendants file a reply and address for service, the small claims registry will send you a copy and set a date for a settlement conference. If no Reply is filed within the time limit set out on the NOTICE OF CLAIM, you may apply for a DEFAULT ORDER. You will have to file a certificate of service to prove the NOTICE OF CLAIM, a blank reply form, your completed address for service form and a blank address for service form were served.

FROM:

Write the name (s) of the individual(s) or company(ies) who are filing this claim. An Address for Service (Form 38) must also be filed with your Notice of Claim which will prove your contact information including address where the small claims registry and the other parties can serve you with documents. If your address changes at any time you must file an updated Address for Service (Form 38) with the small claims registry and serve on all parties involved in the claim.

TO:

Are you sure you have used the proper name? If you wish to sue a company or a society, you can get the legal name from the printout of the company search.

Is there more than one defendant? If so, put both names (side by side) in the space given. Are you sure the claim(s) are a result of the same transaction or event?

WHAT HAPPENED?

You do not need to tell everything about your case here. You must tell just enough to let the defendant know what the case is about. Keep your description brief. You will have a full opportunity to present all the facts and provide supporting documents at a settlement conference or trial.

WHERE? WHEN?

A notice of claim must be filed at the small claims registry nearest to where

a) the defendant lives or carries on business, OR

b) where the transaction or event that resulted in the claim took place.

If the case is about a breach of contract (overdue credit account for example), tell where the contract was made or account opened or where the payments were to be made or sent.

HOW MUCH?

If your claim is made up of several parts, separate them here and show the amount you are claiming for each part.

For example:

a	Amount owing on unpaid invoice	$$$$$$$$
b	Interest under the contract	$$$$$$$$

The defendant might agree with part of your claim if you show its separate parts.

The most you may claim in Provincial Court of British Columbia (Small Claims Court) is $35,000.00, including the amount of money claimed AND the value of any goods or services claimed. This does not include interest and expenses.

If your claim is for more than $35,000.00 and you wish to file in this court, just say in this section "I am abandoning the amount over $35,000.00". Otherwise, you should file your claim in Supreme Court. If you choose to abandon part of your claim you cannot sue for that part later.

Are you asking for something besides money (eg. recovery of goods)? If so, fill that in and show the value but do not add the dollar amount for that part to the Total Claimed.
